PHOEBE BRUNNER

A RADIANT SOLITUDE

JANUARY 30 - MARCH 23, 2026

OPENING RECEPTION:

1ST THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 5TH

FROM 5-8pm

SANTA BARBARA, CA - Sullivan Goss is excited to announce the gallery's sixth solo exhibition for visionary landscape painter PHOEBE BRUNNER.

In an increasingly busy world, Phoebe Brunner's mythical landscapes and fanciful botanicals offer a grand day out. Looking at her newest body of paintings, you can escape along an untraveled road, skim across mountain peaks alive with alpenglow, breathe easy in the violet mists, or lose yourself in a walk along an undulating shoreline. While Phoebe's landscapes are unpeopled, they are never lonely or still. Wild flowers come alive, dancing their seedlings into the wind. The smell of rain fills the air. Daring brushstrokes full of juicy paint animate the world, from flora in the foreground to the light on the horizon. All of these qualities are hallmarks of Phoebe's distinctive way of showcasing her reimagined landscapes: a bit of magic, a dash of remembered California places, and a whole lot of radiant solitude.

Phoebe lives and works in California. As an accomplished equestrian, Phoebe has ridden deep into the local land ranches and hills of the central coast, gathering inspiration for her next great painting. She earned a BFA from UCSB and she also trained at Otis Art Institute, Chouinard, and the University of Guadalajara. Her work has shown extensively in galleries and museums across the American West. She is represented at Sullivan Goss.

Phoebe Brunner will be present at the 1st Thursday reception on February 5th.
